

Les Examables Audition Notice

AUDITION INFORMATION

The audition will be held Thursday, October 19th from 4 – 5:30 PM. Anyone is welcome to audition, even if you aren't in a theatre class. Auditioners will read choose one monologue from the audition packet for a character they are interested in. If time permits, some actors may be asked to read again at the director's discretion. Each actor will get to perform their monologue at least once.

A call back audition will be held on Friday, October 20th from 4 – 6 PM. Those who the director wish to see further will be invited to the call back audition. The callback list will be posted on northoakstheatre.weebly.com on the "Les Examables" page roughly 30 minutes after the initial audition. ONLY COME TO CALLBACKS IF YOU'RE NAME IS ON THE LIST. Those who are invited will read cold from the script. Note: you may still be cast if you are not called back. I will only call back those I need to see again.

PRODUCTION INFORMATION

Tired of too much standardized testing in her high school, high achiever Anna Ullman stages a protest and finds herself crowned as the new principal. But ultimate power comes with its own problems (especially after death threats from the all-powerful State Board of Education), and soon Anna finds herself descending into madness and imposing even more standardized testing. It's up to her former best friend, Lola, to lead a rebellion to bring down this new tyrant. Soon Lola is manning the barricades and singing triumphantly awesome songs in this insane satire based on the mega-musical Les Miserables.

Performances will be on Thursday and Friday, October 19-20 at 7:00 PM. Both performances are required.
